Included is a parking space on the urbanization premises.

Pilar de la Horadada, a quintessential Spanish village at the southern tip of Costa Blanca, boasts a large main street lined with supermarkets, a variety of shops, restaurants, bars, and picturesque squares. The stunning beaches of Torre de la Horadada and Mil Palmeras, with their fine sandy promenades, are a mere 5-minute journey. The village also prides itself on its extensive network of cycling and walking paths, as well as a diverse array of sports activities. The 18-hole Lo Romero Golf Course is conveniently close. The N332 and AP7 provide seamless connectivity. Corvera (Murcia) and Alicante airports are within 40 and 55 minutes, respectively.
